BORIS THE SPIDER

A Journal of Duplicious Doings, Raw Power, and Naked Greed

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practice to deceive."

---Sir Walter Scott---

13 Feb 97

AUSTRIA WINS 'BORIS IX'

Congratulations go to Kevin Wilson for a convincing win in 'Boris IX'. Special thanks also go out to Jack and Wayne who soldiered on against insurmountable odds.

STANDBY ALERT: We have openings for the following position:

"BORIS X": Italy. Submit orders as it could all be yours.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "The gods cannot help those who do not seize opportunities." ---Confucius

Glenn Petroskie, the non-ASL AREA custodian has moved. His new address is 6829 23rd Ave. Kenosha, WI 53143-1233. Send all non-ASL AREA victory chits to him.

The 1997 Midwest Open VICTORY IN THE PACIFIC Tournament will be held 1-2 Mar 97 at the Day's Inn at I-94 and Wisconsin 50, Kenosha, WI. Registration fee is $20, 1st place wins $100. SASE Glenn Petroskie (see previous paragraph) for details or phone him at 414-554-5044.

The 1997 Chattanooga Rail Gaming Challenge will be held 21-23 Mar at the Quality Inn South (I-75, East Ridge Exit) beginning noon Friday and extending to Sunday afternoon. This is a Train Gamer's Association (TGA) sanctioned event. Admission is $20 in advance. Games offered include 18xx, EURORAILS, RAIL BARON, SANTA FE, and more.

Dan Farrow has changed his e-mail address again. The new one is dwliv@dcn.net.

KREMLIN fans will want to get a copy of the latest AVALON HILL GENERAL which contains additional cards for the expansion deck and a '1953' scenario revolving around the power grab at Stalin's death.

Rich Goranson has temporarily suspended publication of Forlorn Hope and That's Armageddon! while he recovers from a mild heart attack. Don't know yet how that will effect his ability to play Turkey in 'Boris XI'. Those of a mind to brighten the day of a stricken gamer (and potentially disgruntled postal worker) can send greetings to his home address (p 19).

Kevin Wilson reports finding yet another HOTW Epoch VIII variant. This one has empire and event cards that can be downloaded and printed in color for mounting to play with the board. They can be found at:

<http://www.sinceretech.it/3M/Pandora/MHoTW/MHoTW.html>

Kevin opines: The variant, besides depicting 20th Century events, should help level the luck factor of the Epoch VII and favor those players who created "long-lasting" and well distributed empire.

BOOS & KUOOS

This month's Madame Boldue Press Excellence Award (and free issue) goes to Fon Fisher for his 'Boris IX' OW press.

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sunday Bomb is lobbed jointly at Paul Ziecke and John Bryden for "actions detrimental to the advance of ADV CJV".

CLEARWINE: The Austrian Century has begun. Emperor Karl Kevin personally accepted the surrender of Kaiser Jack's flagship Die Rose and gave him first-class steamship tickets to far off, fabled Buenos Aires. Tear Wayne was similarly retired to Pennsylvania in America. Pope Leo has crowned Karl Kevin "Emperor of Europe". Italy and England are now nominally "independent allied" states. In truth, Italian assimilation is well under way, and the British too, with their lifeline to India firmly in an Italian stranglehold, will fall into line soon.

MINAS MORGUL: The East is clearly now under the Sultan's sway; the West is still in dispute and should, if sanity were to prevail, postpone their squabbling and unite against resurgent Islam. Fat chance. Kaiser Pete must at least make an attempt to save his Austrians cousins and in so doing begin to lay down his own defense against the Jihad. French and English fleets are needed to bottle up the Turks in the eastern part of the Med.

PRESS:

The recent tragedy in space has devastated Grand Fenwick. Duchess Glorianna declared the program at an end and forbid any more spare launches.

But in the hour just before dawn, a shadowy figure creeps through the castle, enters a small capsule atop a rocket in the Jericho tower and pushes the launch button.

NOTE: There's been a bit of overspending of late that I had to 'adjust': also an increase in launching equipment one doesn't have.

PRESS:

Excerpts from a phone conversation overheard at the office of the President of the Saint Louis - San Francisco Railway:

"What do you mean, SQUATTER'S RIGHTS!? I'm trying to build an empire here, and I'm being chained down by the government! I have trackbuilding crews ready to connect to ports along the Mississippi - to link the heartland of this country with the Gulf of Mexico... I'm going to have to talk with my 'associates' in Washington. It may take some time, but I'm sure that I, uh, we can repeal this confounded law about crossing the Mississippi.

"Otherwise, I'll soon be selling tickets for riverboat rides!..."
